

Dear Atlantic Capital Clients,

Please be advised Atlantic Capital has become aware that some of our clients have been receiving solicitations from a third party company named PPP Forms aka Stenson Tamaddon LLC, promoting their PPP loan forgiveness service. Following the body of this letter, we have included a sample solicitation email that you may receive.

Please note this company is NOT endorsed by or affiliated with the Bank in any manner. Your information was not disclosed by Atlantic Capital but rather released by the SBA as required by law.

Atlantic Capital does not promote the services of this company or any other entity purporting to provide such services. We will advise you directly if the bank engages a third party to contact you about your forgiveness application. We encourage you to exercise caution and conduct your own due diligence before deciding to potentially engage with Stenson Tamaddon LLC or any other entity in connection with PPP- related assistance services.

If you have further questions, please contact your Relationship Manager.

Thank you for your prompt attention.

Sincerely,

Atlantic Capital

Subject: Done-for-You PPP Loan Forgiveness Submission to Atlantic Capital Bank

[REDACTED]

Atlantic Capital Bank has regulatory guardrails around the assistance the bank can directly provide to you in regard to PPP loan forgiveness. You must generate and submit SBA Form 3508 calculations (see attached SBA Procedural Notice), else your PPP loan repayment to Atlantic Capital Bank begins in 2021.

PPP Loan Amount	Estimate Monthly Payment

If you haven't submitted already, do you have 15-minutes to discuss?
