

Atlantic Capital promotes Selena Baltimore Ruth to Director of Talent Acquisition and Teammate Relations to include Diversity, Equity & Inclusion responsibilities.

(April 27, 2021) Atlanta, GA---Atlantic Capital Bank has named Selena Baltimore Ruth to lead Diversity, Equity and Inclusion for the company. In this role, Ms. Ruth will have dual reporting to President/Chief Executive Officer Doug Williams and Executive Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer Annette Rollins.

“Assuming responsibility for this important work for the company is a natural and complementary extension of Selena’s current role as Senior Vice President, Director of Talent Acquisition and Teammate Relations. Selena has built a track record of success, trust and collaboration within our company and amongst our teammates since joining Atlantic Capital in 2017,” said CEO Williams.

“It is my pleasure to lead the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion efforts for Atlantic Capital. I look forward to building upon a strong cultural foundation, and I’m excited to be on this journey with such a great company and with great teammates,” said Ms. Ruth.

Prior to joining Atlantic Capital, Ms. Ruth held Human Resource positions at organizations including Cox Media Group and Waste Industries USA. Ms. Ruth serves on the Society for Human Resources (SHRM) Atlanta HR for Change Committee and is a member of the Peer 150 Human Resources group. Ms. Ruth received her Master’s Degree in Human Resources Management from Troy University and her Bachelor’s Degree in Advanced Technical Studies with a Human Resources focus from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Ms. Ruth holds certifications as a Professional in Human Resources and as a SHRM-Certified Professional.

“Being recognized nationally in our industry and in our hometown of Atlanta as a best place to work, we never want to rest upon these laurels that have been achieved, in large part, by our strong teammate feedback and supportive workplace programs. Selena will provide thought leadership and direction on inclusion efforts in a meaningful way that will align with our purpose of Fueling Prosperity in partnership with our teammates, clients, shareholders and community,” said CHRO Rollins.
